Re: United States v. Christopher Myree
Ind. #: 20 Cr. 471 (ER)

Dear Judge Ramos:

I write to respectfully request a second adjournment of the sentencing in this matter to a date in mid to late April convenient to the Court, and apologize for the lateness of this extension request. I seek until Friday, April 1 to make the defense submission. Also, I continue working to obtain records and other materials relevant to sentence from family members of my client, who inform me they have been delayed due to illness in the family. For this reason, I am compelled to seek a second extension of the date for sentence in this matter; but have assurances from family of my client that matters are now ready to move forward promptly. I have communicated with the prosecutor's office seeking its position, and by AUSA Thomas Wright, the government has no objection to the instant application.

Thank you very much for your attention. If your Honor desires further information, it is requested that the parties be contacted.

Respectfully,

Robert A. Soloway
